

Mr. Albert Ray Hogancamp Jr

January 15, 1968 - September 12, 2024

Albert Ray Hogancamp Jr., affectionately known as Bubba, the undisputed king of roadside rescues and the master of mechanical mayhem, died peacefully on September 12, 2024, at the age of 56.

Born in Mobile, Alabama, on January 15, 1968, to Betty and Albert Hogancamp, Bubba was a natural-born fixer. Armed with a wrench and a sense of humor, Bubba spent most of his life rescuing stranded motorists and turning broken-down vehicles into rolling miracles.

Bubba is survived by his mother, Betty Gornowicz (Leo), his son, Christopher Howell (Katelin), his daughter, Brittney Hogancamp, and his four grandchildren, Asher Howell, Edith Howell, Kylie Andrew's, and Paisley Baxter.

Bubba joined his sister, Deborah Hogancamp, and his father, Albert Hogancamp, in the afterlife.

He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. His memory will be carried on through his children and grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Details will be announced when they are available.
