

Mr. Alec "Chico" E'Vin Tran

July 27, 1995 - October 2, 2024

Alec E'Vin "Chico" Tran born on July 27, 1995, age 29, was called home surrounded by loved ones on October 2, 2024, due to complications sustained in an automobile accident on September 27, 2024.

Chico attended Alma Bryant High School and had worked at K & Amp, G Industrial Services for many years.

He was quick witted, funny, and loved telling tall tales ~ even at his own expense. He always had a smile to share. Chico was a big man with an even bigger heart. He never met a stranger and was the kind of man to give you the shirt off of his back. Although Chico only had two blood siblings, he had many friends that became brothers and sisters that gave him nieces and nephews. He truly loved every single one.

Chico Tran is the son of Danielle Godwin and the big brother of Katelin and Aidan Tran.

He is survived by his grandparents Grover and Kathy Godwin SR., Uncle Grover Godwin JR., Uncle and only father figure Mickey Godwin. Four aunts: Cindra Godwin-Flores, Melisa Godwin-Meza, Second Mom Mandy Godwin, and Chi Tran. He has seventeen cousins and so many friends that are like family.

Active pallbearers are Aidan Tran, Noah Godwin, Ricky Lopez, Jimmy Tran, Brandon Barber, Adam Johnson, John (JJ) Robicheaux, Christopher Bender. Alternate pallbearer Douglas Barber, Christian Lopez, Justin Steen.

“ To know Alec was to know unconditional love. He was such an amazing young man. From the first time I met him he would always put the biggest smile on my face no matter how I was feeling . He brightened up the room with his big smile and witty personality. Danielle and I have watched our babies grow up and as they grew older they even worked together. Between us we had eight family members who work at the same company. So we have been more of a family than friends. I will sure miss my great big hugs from him and that smile that brought so much happiness to me and all of us that knew and loved him. You rest easy now My Big Teddy Bear. Watch over your Mama, Katie, Aiden, and everyone else. You will never be forgotten. I love you Alec.
