

Ms. Ansley Taylor Sellers

June 17, 1998 - March 19, 2024

Our Ansley Taylor Sellers, age 25, of Mobile, Al walked through the gates of Heaven and into the arms of Jesus on March 19, 2024.

Ansley loved hard and lit up any room she entered. If you were her people, even if y'all weren't speaking at the moment or upset with each other, when the chips were down, if you weren't sure about anyone else, you knew Ansley had your back. She was a mother, a daughter, a sister, and a friend. She will be greatly missed until we see her beautiful face again. I have no doubt she will be standing at the entrance of Heaven with that big, genuine, perfect smile on her face, waiting for us when it's our time to join her.

Ansley is survived by her daughters, Gracyn Rebecca Geer and Havyn Diane Sellers, her parents Michael and Heather Sellers, two sisters, Ashton Sellers and Ashlei Hester, her only brother, Michael Sellers Jr(Katie Sellers), and grandparents William and Shelia Wright.

She was preceded in death by her grandfather, Cazzie Cavis Sellers and her grandmother, Peggy West.

If you were lucky enough to have known our girl, please join us as we celebrate her life and say our goodbyes... for now..

“ I love you, My Girl! I will love you until forever and into infinite! I am heartbroken and not sure how to exist in this world without you. I will never be complete until I see you again. I will always have a part of me, of who i am as a mother and a person missing until I draw my last breath on this earth. I took so much time for granted. I wish I could have some of those wasted moments back. I wish I could have you back! I love you, Ansley Taylor! Until I see your beautiful face again....Baby Reeest...

“ Taylor,(you only allowed me & your daddy to call you that).

It was no secret that you were my favorite of My Ho's children because you reminded me of myself. From your 'don't care' attitude to your giant heart that loved big! The last text you sent me will haunt me until I leave this earth. I have stood strong beside your moma when she had to make the tough decisions. Ansley.Taylor your moma loves your guts and it will take her a long time to get over this, if she ever does. I've been a permanent part of the family since 1999/2000, I've been through it all with yall, I never in a million years would have thought that this day would come. I just knew you were stronger than the pull that kept you running. Taylor, rise high and go in peace, knowing that we will take special care of the precious little ladies you trusted us with. I LOVE YOU ANSLEY TAYLOR and I'm sorry if I ever let you down. Love, your Tiff-Tiff

“ *Ansley had a huge heart, a kind soul and a beautiful smile! When I first met her, she told me about herself and her girls, and how she was striving to be a better person for them. I knew in her heart, that was truly what she wanted.. I believe she wanted that till she took her last breath... Ansley loved hard and fought hard for what she loved.. I had the honor of praying with Ansley while she cried out to the Lord asking him for peace.. My heart knows Ansley is at complete peace now..
My thoughts and continued prayers go out to your family.*

“ This hurts so bad Ansley. I miss you so much already. Words and tears can't describe the bond we had. We should be going to a wedding not a funeral. I'm completely crushed. I love you baby.

“My heart aches knowing I’ll never hear your voice again. I can just hear you calling me “fool” & laughing. Laying in my bed late at night listening to your babies heartbeat in your belly. Sending that risky text I was too afraid to press send on. Staying up on nights when my mom was telling us to be quiet. All the summer days we spent riding around theodore on the fourwheeler. The person who taught me to add duck sauce & soy sauce to my Chinese noodles. All the little things that I will hang onto forever. Gosh Ansley I love you , I wish you peace forever.

“ Ansley was easy to love. This passed June at an old fashioned camp meeting revival service in Lucedale, MS, Ansley got up and made the walk to the alter on her own, not because someone led her there, but because she wanted and needed the Lord to save her. I held her in my arms and prayed with her as she cried out to the Lord and told Him she needed a savior. God is so loving and so gracious to reach down and save us when we recognize our need for a savior. I only know Ansley, I never got to know her family but I want you all to know that I'm so very sorry for such a tragic loss, my heart aches for you all. I pray the Lord comfort you and give you peace in this season of mourning.

“ My thoughts and prayers for the family. My heart is so broken right now. Ansley.. My son Justin "Bently" cared about you. I'm pretty sure he was waiting for you at the gates of heaven. It's only been 11 days since he passed away. There is an empty feeling that I feel loosing a child. Both of you taken too soon. You both can rest easy now. Don't be up there causing trouble, I know how yall are.
