

Mrs. Barbara Digman Roberts

October 29, 1949 - September 25, 2025

Barbara Digman Roberts, born on October 29, 1949, in Bratt, FL, won her 8-year battle against pancreatic cancer at home, surrounded by her immediate family, on September 25, 2025. For the last three years, she was a walking miracle, exemplifying resilience and complete faith that God would call her home when He was ready. To know Barbara was to love her. She forgave freely and loved abundantly. Her resilience and zest for life have touched and inspired many over the past eight years.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, George and Eunice Digman; her brothers, George Digman Jr., Sion Digman, and Dewey Digman; nephews Jay Lewis and Sandy Godwin, niece Julie Digman, great-nephew, Robert Ford; her parents-in-law, Harold and Elaine Roberts; and her brother-in-law, Byron Parker.

Barbara is survived by her husband of 57 years, Guerry Roberts; her daughter, Tracy Wood; her son, Bryan Roberts; her grandchildren, Timothy (Kaylyn) Wood, Morgan Wood (Dillon), and Jacob Roberts; six great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. She is also survived by her sisters, Evelyn (Charlie) Cates, Judy (Todd) Ford, Susan Digman, Wanda Digman, Trish Digman, and Sherry Parker; her brother, Robert (Angie)

Digman; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

There will be a graveside service on: Saturday the 18th at 10 AM at Mobile Memorial Gardens, officiated by Rev Don Hatcher.

There will be a Celebration of Life (food provided) following at Schillinger Rd Baptist Church.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to her church of 57 years, Schillinger Rd. Baptist Church.
