

Mr. Carlton Wayne Tillman

September 28, 1958 - February 22, 2023

Wayne Tillman, Army Veteran, born September 28, 1958 departed this life February 22, 2023. Wayne really loved his family and enjoyed coaching his eldest daughter Michelle, watching his youngest daughter play in the band, spending time with his granddaughter Trinity, and fishing with his in laws. He kept those memories close to his heart, and cherished memories with all of his family and friends. He had much love and respect for everyone. He is loved and missed greatly by many but not forgotten.

"A fine wonderful man has been lost. My dear brother Wayne. I will miss him very much we didn't get to spend much time together in these last days. But knowing he was there was comforting. We all love Wayne. He is missed by his wonderful wife Brenda and a host of family and friends who loved him. Pray for all. Yes, Wayne you are missed greatly but knowing you are in the company of our Almighty God comforts us all. I apologize for not being there due to sickness and other severe illnesses. Please forgive me. Love you, Bubba! Look forward to seeing you again." ~Ronald

He has left this world to be with his Mother Lucy and Father Carl in the heavenly afterlife and is deeply missed by his wife Brenda, daughters Michelle and Tiffany, granddaughter Trinity, and son in law Joseph, along with his sisters Linda, Sandra, and Evelyn, brother Ronald and a host of many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
