“ I met Mrs Carol 11 years ago when I moved in with Pete next door to Mrs Carol and Mr Jim. We hit it off automatically. She be came one of my best friends, and another mother. I loved her so much and I wished I could have taken away her pain. I thank god for all the life lessons she gave me and wonderful recipes and always having a cup of sugar or milk and butter. I know I drove her crazy sometimes. I will never forget our late night talks on the phone and our good laughs. I'm honored to call her my friend. She has a wonderful husband who never left her side and a wonderful daughter and 2 granddaughters which she lived for. I'm so thankful I was home and take care of her, her last few days at home. You will never be forgotten Mrs Carol, Pete and I loved you so much. I hope and pray your resting peacefully and no more suffering. I love you and I I'll keep my promise to look over Mr Jim. 😇

“ I met Carol when I was 16 years old. That's when she taught me how to sew. We enjoyed a lot of time at Dauphin Island burning up in the sun but we loved it.
She was a great friend and can't tell you how many hours we spent on the phone.
She will be greatly missed. I miss her already
