“ Jason and I met Chandler and his family at a mud park that we all frequent regularly. Chandler would be waiting for us to pull through the gates and greet us with a big smile and busting to tell us the crazy things he had done since the last time we saw him. His goofiness and silliness kept us laughing nonstop, and we never knew what he was going to ride up on from one trip to another. One trip, he came riding up to camp on this tiny 4-wheeler that he could barely fit, and it was so loud jaw dropping that we dubbed him Bubble Guppy that weekend. We all laughed and laughed at his silly antics. He loved dads cooking and would show up at breakfast time and supper time and hang with us around the campfire. He was a such a great kid with a big personality that we fell in love with. We will greatly miss him, and our trips won't be same without him. We love you Chandler, always!

“ I remember when we used to ft every night. I was scared to put my face in the camera bc I’m of people to judge me. He kept telling me he wasn’t gonna judge, and he never did. That’s what I loved about him, he never judged you. He was always one to put a smile on your face no matter what happened. We love and miss you Chan.
