My Sweet Brother,

Remember when you were at the hospital in Pascagoula, you were recovering from the heart event that you had and I wouldn't leave you, I stayed all night until the next day and waited to take you home. We had so much fun you would think you wasn't sick we'd laugh so hard till we cried we was acting like the children we used to be, what a blessing that was to spend that much time with you, just me and you nobody else to spoil our time. When we were alone we always had so much fun had great talks. I still can't get over how funny it was that night. I was in the hospital with you when I slept on that chair I laughed till I cried and you were laughing and you said you going to have to quit laughing I can't go to sleep and then I laughed more and then you laughed more too!!!

I thought we were going to get kicked out of the hospital haha we giggled like children. That bed you were in was not too great and every time it did that release of air and pump back up it would aggravate you and I would get to laughing what a time we had in that hospital room!!! I'll never forget it. I'm so glad "God" blessed us with that time together.

I sure enjoyed it. We'll have fun again when I get to Heaven. I love you so much and miss you so much!!! It's so hard without you... knowing that you were just 30 minutes away was okay. So now I just pretend you're at home that's how I can get through because reality of you being gone to heaven hurts me so deeply and has broken my heart completely.

So I'll just pretend you're at home and it won't make things as bad as knowing you're not there. Everything moves so fast especially time, so I'll see you before you know it. Please watch over me and Sissie we need you. See you soon Brother💕

My dearest brother I have had a really bad day without you today, while you were still here I wanted to give you a big bouquet of roses like you did Mama, however, I didn't have the money for the beautiful display of two dozen red roses that you gave her the most beautiful I've ever seen in my life. So here's a little token for today to let you know I love you but you know I do and I'll be back soon to write you

Hopefully we will have some peace in the world now at least some.

“ It's my Birthday and your not with me. You always called, came over right on time, took me out to dinner then we would take in a picture show, then you would take me back home.

I miss your smile and happy attitude you always was so sweet and kind. You gave me the most beautiful cards of course one of them would have money in it to help me.

I would have loved for you to been here to pick at me about getting older. Well I'll be here until , "The Lord" calls me home...and that will be an awesome day to see "The Lord" then you my precious brother!!! An of course the close family members we've loved and missed for so long. I'm going to have a tough time without you brother, I know it's going to be so hard for me because I have loved you so much and so long.
