“ I remember when I was having problems with Jeff my son and the first time jeff met Curt and found out he was in to motorcycles jeff fell in love with him right then an Curt took the time with him to talk about work on his motorcycle jeff didn't have anyone in his life to talk and do the things he liked since then his two favorite people were his grandfather Dean and his uncle Curt he was always wanting me to take him to see Dean and Curt.
We love u and are going to miss u very much Curt
