“Cindy was such a sweet friend! She always took pictures of my children at the Davidson High School football games when the band was playing and sent them to me. She also took them at South when they were there as well and made sure that I got them. I'm so sad to hear that she has passed. She will definitely be missed.

“Cindy and I share a lifetime of memories. She was like a sister to me and was like part of our family since she was 13 years old! I loved her so dearly and miss her precious and sweet presence here on earth.
