

Mrs. Dawn Louise Everts

March 28, 1956 - August 14, 2025

Dawn Louise Everts, 69, passed away peacefully on August 14, 2025, in Mobile, Alabama.

Born on March 28, 1956, in San Antonio, Texas, Dawn was the daughter of Robert and Joyce Dye. Her life was marked by a steadfast faith in our Lord and Savior, and she now rests in His eternal embrace.

Dawn was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Ronald Everts, and her parents. She is lovingly remembered by her daughter, Cynthia Eve Croom(Thomas); her granddaughter, Elise Bowab; her sisters, Deborah Vandewater(John), Sharon Tayler(Russell), and Diana Allen(Gary); and her brothers, Dennis Dye and Derril Dye.

Her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. May her memory bring comfort and peace to those she leaves behind.

Tribute Wall

RK

“ I was blessed to have known you through work. It was always fun to talk about the differences of where we were living. And about our families & adventures. You were infectiously positive & I'm so glad we had a chance to meet in person. You are greatly missed my friend.

Robyn Kopinetz - August 26, 2025 at 08:45 AM

SS

“ Dawn was a great, sweet hardworking co-worker. We had so many conversations & I know she is with the Lord. We all are still grieving for the loss of such a wonderful lady.
Susan James Sheffield

Susan Sheffield - August 24, 2025 at 01:36 PM

TS

“ May Dawn's sweet soul rest in peace. Dawn was a classmate and friend. I had no idea her husband had passed and now they both are united. Sincere condolences go out to her family! 🙏🙏🙏

Tanyz Shepherd - August 22, 2025 at 07:40 AM

MA

“ We are so sad to hear of this. Dawn was a very good friend & as sweet of a person I've ever met. God bless her soul and grant her peace.
Steve & Marcy Debis

Marcy - August 19, 2025 at 04:51 PM

“ Dawn always had such a positive outlook and attitude. She was a pleasure to work with and a great travel partner. She is certainly missed, but glad she no longer suffers. ”

---

Cindi Gartman - August 19, 2025 at 11:39 AM