“ Aunt Debi, I will always cherish time spent with you. You were so beautiful inside and out. A funny childhood memory and confession... you would not let me leave the table until I ate all my asparagus. I was prepared to sleep at that table. Then Laura snuck in and helped me. She warned me not to put it in the trash because you'd check there. So we put it back in the pot. 🙄 Sorry for my mischievousness. I love you so much! You are greatly missed. XOXO
