“ I only knew Beth for a short time. It was fall 1985. We were both 15. I had gotten into some trouble and went to stay with my Grandpa in Caryville. They enrolled me in school. Holmes County High School. The first person I met was Beth. She came right up to me and introduced herself. I had just come from Chicago. I was definitely out of place but Beth made a wisecrack about my last name and then I said something back and we laughed. She must have been an amazing person to leave such a lasting impression on a 15 year old boy from the city. I remembered her because the Chicago Bears won the Super Bowl on January 26 1986 that was my 16th birthday. I am sad for all her family, but I'm also blessed to have known her if only for a short time. I left back to Illinois that spring and never saw her again. From what I read seems she had a great life. I am deeply sorry for the family

“ I worked with Beth at Walmart 853 in apparel. She was a very sweet person who always shared her wisdom and tricks and short cuts of getting things done in apparel. She always took her time to teach us something new. I will always appreciate that and miss her very much. Michelle White from Walmart on Schillinger Rd

“ Beth was a blessing for our family. She stepped in while I was giving birth to my first baby. My parents couldn't be there till morning, but sweet Beth stepped up and helped. She held my hand along side my husband in the hospital and even brought me food. Beth, James, and Kristin even advocated for me in the hospital. After they would babysit, hold, and love my babies and pets and just like they were their own. She became like family for us. Sadly we lost contact after she moved from Mississippi. I wish with all my heart that we kept in contact. Hoping comfort and love for James, Kristin, and Beth's family during their time of grief. I hope one day to talk and catch up with all of them. Can't wait to see her smiling face and open arms again.
