“ Suzanne, I do wish you had let me know you were sick or at least just give me a call and I could have come to check up on you. I wouldn't have fussed at you. I didn't fuss at you when I called you to let you know Ray had passed away. I reached out to you hoping you would again kindle the relationship as family again. I don't care that you and Ray were divorced. You were still family to me. You were still my sister-in-law and always would be. You changed your phone numbers on me so I couldn't call you any more, but my numbers are still the same. I still love you Suzanne. I hope you are resting in peace. You deserve a good rest. God bless you. I love you. Rhonda.
