

Mr. Gene Harvey Mayhugh Jr

December 15, 1962 - October 22, 2024

Gene Harvey Mayhugh Jr. passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones in Mobile, Alabama on Tuesday, October 22, 2024 at the age of 61. Gene went by many names Gene, Rusty, Rosco in high school, and Pawpaw.

Rusty is survived by his wife of 40 years, Karen; children, Erica Mccray and son-in-law, Skip; Christina Burks and son-in-law, David; Grandchildren Lilli, Daniel, Quinn, Bradford, Claire, Liam and Elianna; Brothers, Bill Mayhugh and wife Darleen of Florida, and Tony Mayhugh of Tennessee and many other nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents Gene Mayhugh Sr. and Nancy Vaughn of Tennessee and brother Randy Mayhugh of Tennessee.

Rusty was born on December 15, 1962 in St Petersburg, Florida to Gene and Nancy Mayhugh. He married the love of his life, Karen in 1984 in Mobile, Alabama. They were blessed with two beautiful daughters to complete their home. He went to work as a pipefitter and worked hard to provide for his family. He and Karen loved traveling while working seeing new places and adventures.

His children remember him as a patient, loving and honorable man, who loved his family unconditionally. He always had the answer and if he didn't, we knew he would do his research and find out. Rusty loved the Lord with all of his heart. He was an exceptional role model, father and leader, who will be greatly missed.

Rusty Loved spending time with his family, especially all of the grandchildren, smoking food on the grill cooking and hosting for family and friends, blueberry muffins, and going to church.

The service will be held Saturday, October 26th, 2024, viewing from 10 to 12 and service 12-1 at Cottage Hill Funeral Home in Mobile, Alabama followed by a graveside service at Pine Crest Cemetery on Dauphin Island Parkway.
