

Ms. Glynda Ann Stennett

October 29, 1965 - December 24, 2022

Stennett, Glynda Ann

“Stephanie”

Glynda Ann Stennett (Stephanie) passed away peacefully on Christmas Eve, Saturday, December 24, 2022 at the age of 57 in Covenant Hospice at Providence Hospital in Mobile, AL. She was preceded in death by her parents Albert James Stennett and Janeda Grace Wilcox Stennett. She was born in Lubbock, TX before her family moved to New Orleans, LA in 1966. She attended Alice Hart Elementary,

Rosenwald Middle, Edna Karr, and Madisonville Junior High before graduating from Ridgewood

Preparatory School in Metairie, LA as class salutatorian and a National Merit Scholar finalist in 1983. She earned a Bachelor’s degree in Ancient Greece & Near East Archeology from Bryn Mawr College in Philadelphia, PA in 1989 before returning home to New Orleans where she spent the next 25 years as a bookseller and Director of Receiving for Bookstar in the French Quarter and Barnes & Noble on the Westbank. After retirement, she moved to Mobile, AL to be closer to her younger brother James Warren Stennett in her final year of life. She loved books, learning, movies, travel, Pub Quiz, arts & crafts, gardening, and animals. She is survived by her brother Jim, her seven cousins, numerous friends, her cat Hortense, and her dachshund Mr. Darcy. A memorial service will be held on a yet to be determined date and time at Rayne Memorial United Methodist Church at 3900 Saint Charles Avenue, New Orleans, LA where she served as a volunteer for the PrimeTimers Club for the church's elderly membership for over a decade. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider memorial contributions to animal rescue organizations, cancer research funds, or Covenant Hospice Care in Mobile, AL.
