

Mr. Grady Brent Metts

January 8, 1964 - September 19, 2021

Grady Brent Metts was born at the Toul-Rosières Air Base in France on January 8, 1964 to Richard Logan Metts and Josiane Helene Metts. He left this world, in peace and surrounded by love, on Sunday, September 19, 2021. Grady was a graduate of Satsuma High School, class of 1983 (Go Gators!), and lifelong resident of Saraland, AL. He worked as a security guard at both Knollwood Hospital and Lady Luck Casino before he retired to a much more football centered life. Those who knew Grady, know that he was the absolute biggest Alabama Football fan. His heroes included Paul “Bear” Bryant and Nick Saban.

In life, Grady had a personality that was larger than life and couldn't go anywhere without seeing someone he knew. He loved with his whole heart and if he loved you, he loved you forever.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Josiane Helene Metts (Larieve), his father, Richard Logan Metts, and his sister, Corrine Helene Stoops.

He is survived by his wife, Rebecca Adele Metts, his son, Richard Marvin Metts (Katherine), and a whole crew of honorary children including Beck Ward, John Burkett, Gene Hubbert (Jasmine), Adam Burton (Hannah), Justin Rogers and Spliffy.

He is also survived by his sisters, Denise Christine Metts, Lizbeth Ann Snow (Shane), and Christine Elizabeth Frye (William), his nieces, Megan Jamison Snow, Sara Ashley Snow (Philip), Aria Serenity Frye, his nephews, Logan Tyler Frazier, Shane LaQuinton Snow, Alton McRae Snow, Kyllian Ryker Frye, Kylar Reese Frye, and great nephew, Sawyer David Strong.
