“Mr. Wayne... I am so sorry that I never got to share one more conversation with you. You were one of the kindest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing.

We shared tremendous stories of faith and our love for God. I can only hope we meet again dear friend. Thank you for all the memories.

“When I was growing up and visiting Aunt Elma I always wanted to go in Wayne's room because of his interest in space and the space program. He was so smart and Aunt Elma was so proud of him. Much later in life, probably the past 5-10 years, we reconnected and he told me about the book he was writing on time and about the space shuttle school program. So interesting! And I thank him for setting up the ancestry page for family. I'll miss getting the songs that he sent regularly and his humble words of loving our Lord.

I would love to purchase this book if it's available! We came to know him as a beloved neighbor. My family was blessed to know him.

“ Even though Wayne was my nephew, I grew up with him. When his family and him would come to visit us, we would play football and tell scary stories. He knew lots about rockets and would shoot them off behind our house in the field. Wonderful memories!

“ Wayne was a very special person to me in my life. I always respected him so much. He had a good heart and loved Cod and talking about scriptures together. In this year we talked on the phone a lot. Some days three hours at a time. Other days thirty minutes to an hour. I believe he asked me one time if I knew the name of the last song he sent to my phone. He was always sending songs to people. When I heard it I cried. It was named " Close to You" you .. meaning God. We had many wonderful conversations about the Lord. I will miss him so much. Right now, it's difficult to me, to know God has called him home. I'm so glad he was in my life and such a wonderful encourager to me. Praising and thanking God for Wayne.

Yes, everyone who knew Wayne was appreciative of his knowledge and his intense study of space and time. He gave so much of his time in life and educating students in school and around the community. He was always attended to whomever he was talking to with complete attention to that person, he had many gifts that God pleased him with. One was his precious smile which made you feel so comfortable as you see in his picture. I love you Wayne today and forever. Thank God that you Knew Him!!!! May God's mercy cover all the family as they grieve.
