

Mr. Henry Donald Lott

February 24, 1975 - August 8, 2025

Henry Donald “Hank” Lott

Age 50, of Mobile, Alabama, passed away on August 8th, 2025, after a brief stay in hospice.

Hank was born on February 24th, 1975, in Fairhope, Alabama. He graduated from Mary G. Montgomery High School before proudly serving his country as a United States Marine, where he earned the distinction of Honor Graduate of his recruiting class.

Known for his spirited nature, Hank had a deep love for motorcycles. Over the years, he rode with numerous clubs, forging strong friendships and a brotherhood along the way. His friends have said he was the person that would be the first to volunteer to help if you asked, but would never ask for help for himself from anyone.

In his professional life, Hank worked as a chemical operator, respected for his hard work, reliability, and dedication.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Gaines and Lucille Fortner and William and Lorraine Lott.

Hank is survived by his children: daughter Breanna and sons Gunner and Zander; their mother, Traci Lott, and one grandson, Cohen. He is further survived by his parents, Ronnie and Gail Lott; brothers Jason (Brenda) Lott and James Lott; extended family and friends, long-time friends (honorary brothers) Jeston Smith, Jeff Smith, and Ozzy Osborne.

His memory will live on in the hearts of all who loved him.

Services to celebrate Hank's life are forthcoming.
