James attended Little Flower elementary school & graduated from McGill Toolen. After graduation he spent 3 years at Tulane University School of Medicine /Pre-Med. He later graduated from Southeast Technical College. He was accepted to many colleges Springhill, GA Tech, John Hopkins School of Medicine.

Through his lifetime he had a number of friends that he loved ...he even served as a tutor for some of them. He always had a generous heart & giving spirit for anyone. He was always willing to help with whatever & whenever he could. That was also evident in his love & caring for his Grandmother Cammiola Thompson Adams.

James was a lover of Jesus Christ, as well as an animal lover.

James had many trials, tribulations, & battles...but he still loved!
AND " The Greatest of These is Love"

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Margaret Bradley, Joyce Collins Weaver, and Opal Beasley of Montgomery. And helpful neighbors Dari and Eileen Marks.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to your favorite animal shelter or charity to honor James.
