“ My cousin Janice was a gifted and much loved member of our family. I will always remember the many expressions of her love for my father and her uncle, Roy Clifford Guthrie, throughout his long life. The times of visitation by Janice and her siblings, at our home in Huntsville, were some of the happiest of times within our family. On one particular visit, Janice gave a gift of a nature scene she had painted to her uncle Cliff. It was with great pride that he made that painting a prized fixture on our wall. And I'm proud to say that same painting is hanging in my den to this day. It is with a heavy heart that I recall these cherished memories of my dear cousin Janice today. But my grief is tempered by the assurance that I and all who share that common faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior and Lord, will see Janice once again in the promised resurrection.
