

Mr Jeremy Alan Whitworth

February 15, 1984 - December 4, 2025

Jeremy Alan Whitworth, born February 15, 1984, passed away peacefully on December 4, 2025, surrounded by the love of his family. A devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, Jeremy's life was defined by hard work, loyalty, and a deep appreciation for the simple joys that made life meaningful.

Jeremy is survived by his loving wife, Lynn Whitworth, his daughters Camrynn (Hunter) Gill, Madelyn Witherington, Shelby Witherington, and Sara Whitworth, his one brother David Whitworth, as well as nieces, nephews, and many other family and friends. He was a proud PawPaw to his two granddaughters, Harper and Huntleigh Gill, whose laughter and light brought immense joy to his days.

He will be welcomed into heaven by his mother, Tammy Whitworth, and his father, Hugh Whitworth, who preceded him in death. In his final days, Jeremy made the meaningful decision to be baptized, a moment that brought peace to him and comfort to those who loved him.

Jeremy built a legacy of dedication and craftsmanship through his career as a welder and pipefitter for UA Local 119, where he began in 2013. He worked with pride and integrity every day until the day he passed, earning the respect and friendship of his brothers and sisters in the trade.

Outside of work, Jeremy found happiness in the things that brought him closer to the people he loved. He had a passion for traveling, fishing, Alabama football, and loved cooking meals that brought everyone together. Nothing brought him more happiness than spoiling his granddaughters and seeing them smile. His presence made family events warm, fun, and unforgettable. Nothing mattered more to him than building a beautiful life for his family and caring for his wife that he adored. He cherished his wife more than anything and would give the world all for her happiness.

A memorial service honoring Jeremy's life will be held on January 10th, 2026, at 10:00 AM at Cottage Hill Baptist Church. His family invites all who loved him to join in celebrating a remarkable man whose impact will be felt for generations.

Jeremy's steadfast spirit, love for his family, and the laughter he shared so freely will forever remain in the hearts of those blessed to know him. May he rest in peace.
