

Mr. Jerry K Dillard

May 8, 1952 - January 26, 2021

Jerry K. Dillard, a longtime resident of Mobile, AL, passed away January 26, 2021 at Mobile Infirmity Hospital due to complications from surgery for esophageal cancer.

Jerry was born in Springfield MO on May 8th, 1952. He moved south with wife Kimberly in 2002 to enjoy a warmer climate and beach life. Jerry is survived by Kimberly Dillard, his devoted wife of nearly 22 years, his son Joshua Dillard of Springfield MO, daughter Amy Mumford of Overland Park KS, and brother Robert Dillard of Brandon MS as well as grandkids, nieces and nephews. Jerry had a warm infectious smile and touched so many with his endless humor. He was a man of unwavering faith and often said he had his best conversations with God while walking on the beach. The family knows he is now healed, resting in peace and was joined with open arms by friends and family that passed before him eager to hear his jokes in Heaven!

Jerry enjoyed the simple things in life with music being one of his passions. As a younger man he had the opportunity to play drums with the Ozark Mountain Dare Devils. He was proud of his extensive CD collection with music of many genres and always said he was sure the neighbors secretly enjoyed his music too.

He wasn't one for social media or technology and proudly carried his flip phone to the end. He always said, "if I need to google something my wife can do it."

Although Jerry did not serve in the military, he had the utmost respect for those who did including his father and brother. Jerry was a true American Patriot with a deep commitment to this country.

In lieu of a service, the family is requesting those wishing to honor Jerry, please make a donation to one of his favorite charity's, woundedwarriorproject.org or stjude.org/donatetoday.

A celebration of life will be held in the future for gathering of family and friends.
