“ A grander neighbor, nobody could be than Jerry Jordan and his family. Our property lines met at his fence, where we attacked weeds--he with weed killer or weed eater on his side; I dug out or weed eated on ours. Conversation, Jerry appreciated and valued helping his friends or neighbor. Chats across the fence or at his patio. Fallen pears from their pear tree, he shared with his friend to feed deer. "Pick all you want", he'd say to me or others for canning or preserving.

My Step-dad and my Mom, Dewey and Frances Kendrick knew Jerry first-1995. A loyal, trustworthy friend was he who witnessed my Mom's will, and after 2014 rolled to Probate court twice to verify stuff in it for Judge Davis. A beautiful yard and garden, Jerry and his family kept well. Mannerly, caring, Christian--Jerry devotedly attended Shiloh Baptist regularly and Spice Pond Rd. Baptist a while, too. (With Rosie). Always so well-groomed, Jerry could have been a Santa Claus for Christmas had he grown a beard.

Jerry's community will miss him. My sincere condolence to Jerry's family.

“ I did know Jerry as long as most of you but the few short 10 years that I did was a honor and pleasure. Jerry was always smiling and had open arms for a BIG hug. He had a gentle heart and sprite and there was no doubt he loved the Lord. And we love you Jerry, rest in the arms of Jesus.
