

Ms. Jo Ann Hodges

November 23, 1944 - November 16, 2024

Jo Ann Guy Hodges (November 23, 1944-November 16, 2024) was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years James T. Hodges, Jr. She was also preceded in death by her parents James F. Guy, Sr and Christine Tillman Guy; and her brother and sister James F. Guy, Jr and Nora “Jenny” Rigsby. She is survived by her daughter Jamie Hodges, her sister-in-law Darlene Guy and her sister-in-law Ann Hodges. She is also survived by nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and other family and friends. In addition, she is survived by Bella the cat. Bella was a great companion to her as she dealt with her illness. She liked to call Bella her “emotional support cat”.

Jo Ann was raised in Whistler, Alabama. In 1963 she graduated from Vigor High School. After graduation she worked as a Unit Secretary at Mobile Infirmary. She worked there until the birth of her daughter. She became a substitute at Indian Springs Elementary School while her daughter was in school.

Jo Ann was a member of Eight Mile United Methodist Church until its closing. She served in various positions during that time including Sunday School teacher, church council member, choir member, and cook for the Eight Mile Lions Club. In her free time, she liked to read, work crossword puzzles, and crochet. She also liked to go on trips with her daughter and family. Her favorite thing to do was go on cruises, especially ones where she went with family.

A memorial service is being planned. Details will be announced when finalized. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Society of St. Stephen at Dauphin Way United Methodist Church.
