“ John was a a great friend because he CARED about his friends. He was not an educated man, as far as school goes, but he had more smarts and knowledge and common sense than any college graduate I ever knew (including me). We will miss him every day, but we will never forget all of the good conversations (he liked to talk), all of the fun we had fishing and the sound of Nathaniel and Jonathan hollering "daddy" every time they needed something. I am a lucky man to be able to say that he was my good FRIEND.

John was my best friend. Not only was he my husband by he was my friend. He loved our family so much. He loved the kids in the neighborhood in Semmes as if they were his own. He was proud of the men that they became. Our house was the neighbor hood house where you could get sweet tea, if you needed a band aide or someone to talk to , John was always there. Where John was , I was. I'm going miss those days and his voice of reasoning

John was our neighbor, always a wave or kind word.I knew I could count on him if needed, and he knew we would be there if he needed us. Not seeing John driving down our road, always a wave or hello, is not going to be the same.Monica, just remember Butch and I will be there for you if and whenever you may need us.Many prayers for you and yours.
