“ From the day I met Ray (Stacey, and the entire Hastings/Carpenter family), they all welcomed me with open arms. Ray had the most gentle soul and genuine heart. Knowing Ray and being a part of his life is a privilege, and I’m so thankful I had him as a part of mine.

“ It’s always been tough having the responsibility of being “the favorite” but I humbly managed. I am so grateful for the time we had. My sweet father in law was always one call away for anything and he never complained about the amount of calls for help he got from me. He loved his family with all his heart. I know he’s “doing and going” in heaven and remodeling up a storm. All my love.
