

Mr. Joseph Edgar Thompson Jr

December 8, 1960 - March 30, 2025

Joseph Edgar Thompson, Jr. born December 8, 1960. It is with full hearts and deep sorrow that we share the passing of Joey Thompson, Jr. A devoted husband, big brother, uncle, cousin and loyal friend, who went to be with the Jesus on March 30, 2025. Joey was preceded in death by his Father; Joseph E Thompson Sr, Grandparents; Joseph and Lucille Thompson, Mack and Pearl Lewis and a Brother; Johnathan E. Thompson. He is survived by his Wife; Shellie Thompson, Mother; Jannie Thompson, Sister; Jennifer Chastang, Brother; Jefferson Thompson. Nieces; Victoria and Cole Boatwright (Zoei and Lakelyn), Julie Thompson, Nephew; Joshua Thompson (Aiden and Parker). Joey was born in Mobile, AL., where he was raised and enjoyed a very large, close, loving family. He enjoyed Sundays at Mamaw's house where there were always enough cousins to have a back yard ball game of any sort. Those family bonds stayed with him throughout his entire life. He had a huge heart and intense love for his family and friends. Joey was very passionate about everything he set his mind to. He lettered in baseball and football in high school. He enjoyed training in Karate, Boxing and Kickboxing, all of which led to his passion for body building. He competed and won every competition he entered and at one time held Light Weight Titles of Mr. Mobile, Mr. Alabama, Mr. Gulf Coast and others. Joey moved to Orange Beach/Gulf Shores about 18 years ago. He continued to work in A/C and Heating and eventually started his own business. He had a gift for being liked by most that he met, likely for having a genuine concern for others. His business rapidly grew as did his business and personal relationships, and so did his love for Jesus. His favorite scripture was Eph. 6:10-12. No matter how hard or how hot the work could be on top of a condo, he'd send a picture looking down at the beach and say only, "I Live Here". His silly wit and charm will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
