

Ms. Joyce Elaine Mooney

February 12, 1930 - September 27, 2023

“Joyce Elaine Mooney met her Heavenly Father in the early morning hours of September 27, 2023 in Mobile, AL. In honor of her wishes, there will be no funeral or memorial service held.

Joyce Elaine was born in Milwaukee, WI on February 12, 1930, daughter of the late Edward and Edna (Hodgson) McDermott. She was dedicated to the pursuit of education after graduating from The University of Southern Mississippi, where she met the love of her life, her husband, Lonnie W. Mooney. She served as the Dean of Women at Northwestern Bible College and Pillsbury Baptist Bible College. She loved spending time with her family and serving in various ministries including treasurer and pianist. If she wasn't serving, she could always be found baking, sewing, or reading a book about Abraham Lincoln.

Joyce is survived by her 3 daughters, Pamela (Brett) Komar, Saralyn (Terry) Embke, and Pauline (Todd) Richardson; 9 grandchildren, Kyle (Caitlyn) Embke, D.J. Komar, Lonnie (Audrey) Richardson, Tyler (Jessica) Embke, Heather Komar, Jami Richardson, Kayla (Odin) Dart, Tara (Brett) England, and Brianna (David) Robertson; 7 great-grand children, Aubrey Elaine, Caroline, Marley, Porter, Thorin, Jamison, Presley, Rowan, Charlotte, Eleanor, and Ivory; sister, Colleen Nohr; many other family members and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lonnie W. Mooney; her parents, Edward and Edna McDermott; her sister, June Iris Heinzen.
