“ Kevin was one of the most amazing people I have ever known. So many memories of him shared with our family but my favorite memories are of how much he loved Bryce. He was so excited when he found out Anna was pregnant that he beat her to calling me to let me know. You will be forever missed my friend....Rest easy with Jesus...Football season will never be the same without you...Screaming War Eagle all the way to Heaven for you always “ Kevin was the best father anyone could ask for. Ever since I was young, he would work hard to make sure his family and friends had a good time. Kevin would work late and come home exhausted, rightfully so. Even when faced with the hardships of diabetes, an amputation, and COVID-19, he would still fight to make others happy. He left too soon, and nothing can replace him. I'm not religious, but I know he had faith, so I will pray for him for the rest of my days. Rest well, you brave and tough man. I will write stories and sing songs to immortalize you forever.

- Your son, Bryce Kloeckener
