“Kris got me through boot camp. We immediately became friends and had our stupid inside jokes about SpongeBob and a sock. Even after we went our separate ways when we graduated, we still always found each other in various ways. She was one of my people. Even when she was going through so much, she made sure to be encouraging and check on me. She was an incredibly bright light in this dark world.

I will always miss you, my friend.

“ Kristen and I met in Havelock, NC when she brought the sweetest little boy to my gymnastics class. She showed me what a true loving mother looked like and a loving wife. I’m truly saddened by this news but heaven gained a beautiful angel.

“ You were one of my soulmates and best friends. I watched you become an amazing mother and you and David raise an awesome son. From ORCC to AL, and all the moves we did in between, we always had each others back. I will miss you forever. I love you babe.
