“ I am at a loss of words. I had no idea that she is gone. I was sharing a memory with one of my coworkers and she came to mind. I looked for her on Facebook to show them who I was talking about and wow, just wow. "Huevona" as you were known to some of us, the absence of your presence is inconceivable . You were such a light.

“ I had no clue this page existed until today. Got curious and decided to search her name, I was trying to find pictures of her. Her daughter, Jade, is my best friend. I only knew Mama Lacey for a short time, but she made me feel the most loved and appreciated I ever had before. I loved watching her dance and sing with me in the kitchen while she taught me how to cook. I wear the hat she gave me almost every day. She's the best mother figure I've ever had and I miss her every day. I wish her and her family well. ☐

“ You were my youngest. I am at a loss as to WHY you felt this permanent solution was the answer to issues which could have been resolved with time and talking. Everyone misses you. Your kids don't understand, no one understands. I love you no matter what and you will be remembered forever!
