“ What I remember most about Linda was her decorating abilities. Every holiday at her house was beautiful. And she could set the best table to rival any magazine. She loved her family very much, especially the grands. I myself have learned so much from her over the years. She really loved halloween and dressed the part of a witch to a tee for all the kids. RIP Linda you will be greatly missed. May the Lord wrap his arms around the family and friends and bring them comfort.
