“ Uncle Danny was a great man. He gave selflessly and loved endlessly. The memories of joy and laughter shared between our two families over the years and holidays are too many to count. His spirit and those memories will stay with me for the rest of my life. Thank you for who you were and everything you did, Uncle Danny. I Love you.

“ Life time of nothing but precious memories. One particular memory is when I was a little girl he used to ride me on the handle bars on his bicycle and one day we wrecked and he felt so bad but I wasn't hurt too bad and he was so sorry. I love you uncle Danny. We will see you soon. 🤔😭🙏

“ I'm so sorry that I never got to meet you, but enjoyed hearing all of the stories and how much you loved your family. I watch every Bama game from 2300 miles away, and I will always think of Eugene and his big brother sharpening a pool stick and yelling “Roll Tide” To the McDonald Family I extend my most sincere condolences and prayers- much LOVE from Los Angeles ..
