Marena Delaine Mosley, a cherished mother, daughter, grandmother, and friend. Marena was born on November 23, 1972, in Mobile, Alabama and passed away on February 27, 2026.

Marena was the only child of Brenda Blakely and Robert Grimes. She was predeceased by her two young sons, Matthew and Brandon Willis, as well as her adored grandparents, Paul(Jack) and Joyce Tomlin. Marena's journey through life was marked by her unwavering strength and resilience. She worked tirelessly as a waitress for many years, providing for her family with grace and determination. In 2009, Marena's life took a transformative turn when she went to the Home of Grace for Women, first as a participant in their program, and later as a cherished house mother. Her experiences there ignited a passion for caregiving, leading her to dedicate her life to caring for elderly and hospice patients, offering them comfort and compassion in their final days.

Marena had an extraordinary gift for making people feel seen and heard. Her warmth was unexplainable, a beacon of hope and solace for those facing difficult times. Her empathy, born from her own challenges, was boundless, and she approached each person she met with kindness and grace. Marena's love for cooking and interior decorating brought joy to those around her, and she delighted in dressing up, adding a touch of elegance to every occasion.
