Her life Marie was born and raised in downtown Mobile with a devout Pentecostal mother, marrying at an early age Marie had four (4) children.

She was a homemaker working hard for her family to help provide their needs. Over the years she ironed clothes worked in a clock factory, pottery and ceramic making, school bus driver. Marie and "Al" loved playing "Canasta" with Margaret Swalm and the colonial hills neighborhood. She was an excellent seamstress and enjoyed playing Skipbo & painting with her good friend Lucille Crawford (Mike). The last 50 years of her life was spent in West Mobile she loved yard sales, refinishing delapidated pieces of furniture and re arranging her home.

There will be no public service, please keep the family in your prayers as they go through this time.
