“ Matt, "Brother"..... I miss u so much. Knowing u has been one of the biggest blessings in my life... it's so hard to believe that ur not here. I know ur in heaven smiling down on me and Grizzly right now and I'm sure ur proud of our accomplishments this far with so many more to come. I thank u for showing me how to love myself again and for never giving up on me. I will never forget our talks, our arguments, or make-ups. U were such an inspiration in my life. I always looked up to u as being my BIGbrother. It's crazy how life brought us together to become close friends and finding out and listening to all the stories that u would tell about ur life adventures. Dude I go on and on but I'm not wanting to disturb u anymore. Rest in peace Bubba... I loved u then, I still love u now and I will always love you forever. Save me a seat next to u so when it's my turn to go home. Love always and forever, ur Lil SISTER
