I was blessed to have Michelle in my life at an early age. I helped her dad raise her in our home from age 6 to 16. Michelle was a pure joy 💖 so full of love and ALWAYS smiling. Eager to please those she loved. I was unable to have children and (at the time) she needed a parent. It amazes me how God brings people together at just the right time. His timing is perfect! She was daddy's little girl for sure. When she became a mother life, as she knew it, changed. She always did the best she could for Ashley, Libby, Sam, and Tiffany. She loved these girls more than life itself! I remeber her bringing Ashley to me at work on Friday afternoons so she could come spend the weekends with Memaw and Pawpaw. Then Libby was born and she would bring them both to the office on Friday's for our weekends together. Oh, how I miss those days with Michelle and her 4 girls. They have all grown into beautiful young ladies with children of their own. Michelle looked like their sister and they all have her smile and her big heart. Thank you Michelle for many years of loving, fun, and happy memories. You will live in my heart forever. I LOVE YOU FRED ❤️ God blessed me with the best we he gave me you baby girl. You are truly missed by all of us 😭
