“My heart broke when I heard the news. I have so many wonderful memories with nancy! Making candy every year at Christmas and George making fun of the potatoe log! My fondest memories are of our trips to Destin with our kids staying in a studio condo all 6 of us, staying on the beach talking until I was burnt to a crisp but I was going to hang with my friend. The fun talking and laughter at bed time and the kids staying they were going to Pasadena! Lol The comfort I hold hard to know is that Nancy get breathe easy now and is with Tyler! George and Ashley I am praying for peace and comfort for you in all the days that follow!❤️❤️. Love y'all Sheila Mason
