

Mrs. Nora Louise Jackson

December 24, 1953 - September 8, 2023

Nora, L Jackson, born December 24, 1953 as a Kennesaw Georgia native, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on September 8, 2023 in her long-time residence in Theodore Alabama at the age of 69.

She was preceded by her parents S.W. And Mary Lou Williams.

She was the beloved wife of Timothy Jackson for 52 amazing years as well as a loving mother of Timothy Jr, Chris, Patricia, and Samaria. She was a proud grandmother of 14 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. She was survived by her siblings Howard J Williams of Dallas GA, Sylvia Byrom of Rockmart GA, Sandra Oesterreicher of Norfolk VA and Rebecca Hodgins of Canton GA Mrs Jackson was a God-fearing woman whose life revolved around her loving family and her faith. She spent majority of her life working in Education as a teacher and director of daycare facilities. She was devoted to teaching, mentoring and helping children her entire life. She was a passionate and loving person that welcomed everyone into her family with open arms making all who crossed her path feel her amazing spirit.

Mrs. Jackson was the matriarch of her family and cherished every holiday, gathering and family dinner. Quality time with her family was held near and dear to her heart. The more people around the dinner table, the bigger her smile was.

A celebration of life will be conducted in Douglasville GA at a later date.

“ I only met Nora a couple of years ago and wasn't able to spend much time with her but the time we spent together was precious and her sweet heart was evident from day one. It was a privilege to have known her. I will miss our fun lunches that were always too short, but I know we'll pick right back up where we left off one day soon in Eternity and it will be heavenly.
