

Ms. Pamela O'Rourke Roberts

May 8, 1944 - August 20, 2024

Pamela O'Rourke Roberts of Mobile, Alabama passed away peacefully at her home of 50 years on August 20, 2024. Pam was a fierce fighter of cancer for the past 3 years and went to be with our Lord peacefully, surrounded by her family.

Pam was born May 8, 1944. She was a loving, dedicated wife to the late Maurice Roberts for 59 years. She and Maurice were high school sweethearts, although he was a Baker High "outsider", he was quickly accepted by her 1962 Semmes High School crew.

She was a devoted mother to Lesley "Paige" Roberts, Porsha M. Keller and her "love in law" Kenneth H. Keller Jr..

Pam's career as a banker started with First National Bank, continued through the Amsouth Bank years and she retired as the head of Trust Operations for Regions Bank after 47 years.

Pam loved Mardi Gras. She became an active member of LaLuna Servante in 1992 and was the President and Leader in 2001-2002. Pam truly loved carnival season. "Girls Just Want to have Fun" continued to be her motto as she served as a Past President, advisor and friend to many LaLuna ladies throughout her life.

She adored her Class of 1962 Semmes High School classmates and maintained a close relationship with them. She was able to attend the classmate 80th birthday celebration.

Pam was a loving "Nanny" to Morgan Keller Hastings (Taz) Mikco (Ashley)

Roberts, Munchie Roberts (Hayleigh), Hayden McMahan (Samantha), Whitney McMahan and Trista Black. She also cherished her great-grandchildren; MaKenna, Gavin, Amiyah, Morgan and Lydia Rose. She is preceded in death by her beloved mother Dorothy Motes Black, stepfather Hughie Black, brothers, Charles Lucas, Keri Motes and Robin Black. She is survived by her beloved brothers William Lucas (Karen), Richard Black (Raye), Hughie Black (Dianne) and sisters, Jerri Revette and Susan Nolingberg along with many nieces, nephews and cousins.

There will be a memorial service at Cottage Hill Memorial Funeral Home, 7158 Cottage Hill Road, Mobile AL. Visitation will begin at 11:00 with the service at 12:00. A celebration of life will follow at her residence immediately following.

Tuesday morning there will be a small graveside service for immediate family in Goshen, Alabama.
