

Ms. Patricia Ellen Thomas

April 14, 1935 - June 24, 2024

Patricia Ellen Ingles Thomas, 89, born April 14, 1935, a native of Kokomo, Indiana, and a long-time resident of Mobile AL, passed away peacefully at home on June 24, 2024.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Elora Ingles. Her sister and brother-in-law Chic and Margie Evans, her grandson Braxton Perry Everett and lifelong friend Karen Pryor.

She is survived by her children, Kevin Thomas, Steven (Dawn) Thomas, Jill Thomas Richburg, Zeke (Beth) Thomas. Her grandchildren Alison (JB) Thomas, Brantley (Amanda) Everett, Parris (Celina) and Paisley (Rashad) Richburg, Abby Thomas, Julie and Adam Waldron. Her 12 great grandchildren Alyssa, Trey, Brelynn, Braxton, Caiden, Charlee, MaKayla, Austin, Charlotte, Wilder, Lily and Mia.

Pat was truly loved by everyone who had the pleasure of having her in their life. She was one of the most caring and compassionate souls that God lent this earth. She always had an open door, a listening ear, and warm hug without judgement for all her family, friends, and many of her children's friends who they often referred to as their second mother. She cherished her time living in Kokomo with her lifelong friends, especially The JOGs. After college Pat flew as a stewardess for Eastern Airlines, giving her the opportunity to do something she loved, which was travelling. After moving to Mobile in 1966, she continued to raise her family (that she held as her greatest accomplishment) then eventually retired from Nephrology Associates.

She spent some of her most enjoyable times antiquing and thrifting. She was a collector of all things. By far her favorite was spending time with her grandchildren having tea parties, playing baby dolls, reading books and doing puzzles. They were her greatest joy.

The unconditional love that she showed, should be an example to everyone. Her light, love, spirit and beauty will continue to shine because she will be carried in our hearts forever.

Visitation will be hosted at Cottage Hill Memorial Funeral Home on Saturday, June 29, 2024 from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, the service will begin at 12:00 PM. Interment to follow at Pine Crest West Cemetery.

“ No condolences will ever fill the void of your loss, but I pray you all will find peace needed, in the loving memories left behind, in the minds and hearts of those she ever knew, and were touched by her sweet soul

“ Jill is my dearest friend. With that came a huge unexpected bonus. The love of Ms. Pat. The very best hug giver in all the land. The sadness our hearts feel now is a small price to pay to have had the pleasure to know and love her, that was truly a gift. Love and condolences to her family in this most difficult time. Her light will remain forever in your hearts.

“ Through many pictures, I am discovering the level of beauty, sophistication, and personality that my Mother was blessed with, during her incredible life.

The emotions are overflowing..as are the tears of amazement and pride. I will never know how my brothers and I were so lucky to be chosen as her children. Her morals and character have always been apparant to us and it's what our family strives for. I pray we make her proud.
