“ My son Tyler Jones played at west side park with Coach Tim’s nephew Grant Allenbach. This is how I met Tim. He was such a great role model for those young men. He was a pleasure to be around and had a true love for those around him, He truly loved the game of baseball and was a tremendous coach. Tim never met a stranger and once he got to know you ,you had a friend for life. Coach , this world was a better place because of you. You are in heaven now with Jesus. A good and faithful servant is smiling down on us. God bless you and your family. We will miss you but we will see you again. Love you and miss you. Mark Jones.

“ So many memories I don’t know where to start. One that comes to mind, every time a date would pick me up Timmy would show him how much money he had! Loved to have cash in his pocket and he showed it off! Cracked me up! Another one, he called me Claws because I was the smallest so I defended myself with my fingernails 😏. Timmy had nicknames for everyone since he was a little boy. I can see him now with those beautiful blonde ringlets and big blue eyes. I love and miss you sweet brother. No more suffering. Your older sister, Libby ❤️

“ I remember that little boy who always had a smiling face, beautiful twinkly blue eyes that looked like Paul Newmans, a very sweet spirit and his love he had for that little puppy dog that never left his side. The world was a better place because you were in it Tim. Thankful for my time with you and my 2nd family. Michelle Fant Mosley

“ Timmy was the cutest little boy, he loved dogs and wanted to be a garbage man when he grew up. He liked the big trucks. We didn't have many toys growing up so we created our own games. With 5 living brothers there was always a baseball cap around, so we would play throw the cap for hours. He loved to have fun and make people laugh. He renamed my daughter Heather with a name he liked better "Sabina" and called her that to this day. I will miss you my sweet brother, but now you have seen the face of Jesus and you are at peace. Until we meet again I love you and give mom & dad a kiss for me.
