“Dad, I'm so sorry you had to pass and I could see in your eyes that you didn't want to nor did we want you too. You fought that hardest battle of your life and you gave it everything. Though your time on Earth was cut short, I want everyone to know that a Son could not have got a better Father or friend. You were there for every path I took with motivation and influence and for that I will be forever great full. And I can only hope I've made you as proud as you have made me. I deeply regret the laughter and times that we're going to miss but cherish the ones we shared. To our Dad, our most trusted friend and the best Father a son and daughter could ever have, we love you.
