“ To my friend my brother my roll dawg. I already miss the calls the times we hung out the laughs(oh yeah the laughs). I met Shamon on the 4th of July 14 years ago in California. 100% Bama! I didn't know I found a brother that day. To the Rick's family, your son, husband, father, Cuzzo will be miss. But God is getting his child back. I'll miss the calls the times we hung out and my big bro calling everytime Alabama won, Roooooooll Tide(Hated it). I'll see you again big bro. In loving memory, from your Californian family and your lil big bro.

Bless my brother, the pain is over. God has called you home. Bless Ginger and guide her through this time of healing. You did everything you could for my friend, my bro. Amen. (Roll Tide)

“ I first met Shamon at work (GTL), but he soon became a great friend. My children called him “Uncle Shamon.” He spoiled and loved them. Shamon became an extended family member. That's how much he was loved. Our hearts are saddened to hear of his passing from this life. We will always love and remember him as a warm, kind and loving person. What a lively spirit and sense of humor he had! Rest in God's peace, our brother, Shamon.
