“ Well Sis I have so many good memories of the good times we have had. I don't know where to start. First of all I will share a memory of our little brother throwing your Elvis records out the window and it was the middle of the summer and you know they melted into one big record. And the hard times we all had..it taught us to be a better person later on in life. So thankful for our Christian parents for teaching us how to love each other and all about the love of our God. I will miss you, but you are in a better place.
