“ Sherri was a childhood friend. A beautiful little girl and tomboy. We had some great times on Jeff Hamilton Rd. In a neighborhood of 17 boys and only two girls she was right there with us shooting BB guns throwing dirt clods and playing ball. At 9 years old she was a year younger and I thought she was beautiful. I wrote my first love note to Sherri the “I Love You do you Love me” check yes or no love letter. She checked “no you are too old for me”. 😊. Prayers for the Norris, Stewart, Guesnard and Cagle Family. ❤️🙏

Ohh, Randy I am so sorry to be so late in just now reading this about Sherri! Of course I remember Sherri as your little sister but I didn't know her too well. Just that she seemed very shy and was soft spoken and was just a beautiful girl! You were very fortunate to have been her big brother! I'm soo sorry she is gone from your family!! But I pray she knew the Lord and that you will see her again soon 🙏! Praying for comfort for all of your family! 🙌❤️
