

Stuart Gavin Mosner

September 29, 1956 - February 26, 2026

Stuart Gavin Mosner, 69, of Mobile, Alabama, passed away on February 26, 2026, in the city he was born and loved — Mobile, Alabama.

Stuart was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He is survived by his loving wife, Angela Aughtman Mosner; his son, Joshua (Annie) Mosner; his daughter, Ashley Mosner; and his beloved grandchildren: Sophia Mosner, Jaylen Mosner, Brionna Burden, Aerionna Burden, Jeremiah Burden, Trinity Burden, Destini Burden, and Isaiah Burden, who brought him great pride and joy. He is also survived by his siblings, Suzanne (Skip) Williams, Kathleen Fitzgerald, and David Mosner. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles Mosner and Lillian Mosner.

Stuart dedicated over 30 years of service to the City of Mobile Electrical Department before retiring. He was a hardworking and dependable man who took pride in providing for his family and serving his community.

He was a passionate fan of the University of Alabama and its beloved Alabama Crimson Tide football team, rarely missing a Saturday game during the season. Fall Saturdays were sacred in his home, and his familiar “Roll Tide” could be heard loudly and proudly. And no matter the day or circumstance, he could always be counted on to smile and say, “It’s Friday somewhere.”

Stuart was known for his quiet strength and stubborn determination. He was kind-hearted, selfless, and always ready to help anyone in need. If you called him, he was on his way. He would stop whatever he was doing without hesitation and give you the shirt off his back. His actions spoke louder than words, and his steady presence brought comfort to many.

Above all, Stuart had his own personal relationship with God, which guided him throughout his life.
