

Mrs. Susan Jane Pittman

April 21, 1949 - August 29, 2025

Susan Jane Pittman, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, passed away on August 29, 2025, at the age of 76 surrounded by her family.

She was born in Miami, Florida, and later became a longtime resident of Mobile, Alabama, where she raised her daughters and built a life rooted in love, honesty, and family. She was lovingly known as “Maw-Maw” by so many and will be remembered for her blunt honesty, her warm heart, and the way she always told it like it was but, always in a loving way.

Being there for her girls through their school years started as a daily act of love and grew into a career in healthcare. She earned her medical assistant license so she could serve as a school nurse, a role that allowed her to share in their days and remain a steady presence throughout their elementary and middle school years.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Beatrice Thacker; her father, Robert Pittman; her sister, Patricia Raynor; and her loving husband, Richard Davies.

Susan is survived by her daughters, Elizabeth Davies, Patricia Davies, and Renee Bates; her grandchildren Alyssa, Dominic, Stormie, Lakeisha, EJ, Sylvia, Angel, Miranda, and many others; her great-grandchildren Kayden, Abigail, Kingston, and Vermez; and a host of beloved friends and extended family, including Claudia Silvers, Ray Noonchester, Gwen Crawford, and the Brown family and beloved black boy (Toby) the dog. A special thanks to Gentiva staff Christina, Marilyn, and Ashley.

She will be deeply missed but forever remembered in the hearts of all who knew and loved her

“ Mom,
I couldn't have asked for a better woman to be my mom. God blessed me with the best mom and I am grateful for that Forever and Always. Love you Ole Girl💜💜

“ Wish I could have known her longer, but am blessed to have been a friend and a guest in her home. Never got tired of visiting or just being near her, she always told me she loved me before I left to come back to Tennessee!

“ Me and Mawmaw had many memories. Some of my favorites were simply going and getting coffee. We would drive to Dunkin donuts and she would love every moment of it. ❤️😭
