

Mr. Travis Webb Woolley

September 24, 1953 - November 15, 2023

Travis W. Woolley of Mobile, AL passed away at home on November 15, 2023 with his wife Monica at his side. He had recently celebrated his 70th birthday. Travis spent his rambunctious young life in Newport News, VA where he grew up fishing, trapping, and boat building. He moved to Mobile, AL in the 1970's chasing work. He soon convinced the love of his life, Monica, to join him in Mobile where they settled and built a family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Elbert S. and Betty (Edgerton) Woolley and his brother Elbert "Chip" S. Woolley, Jr. He is survived by his wife Monica (Snelling) Woolley, his daughters Amanda Woolley Beach (Lucas) and Bonnie Woolley, his son Travis S. Woolley, his brothers Rollin Woolley (Dianne) and Stephen Woolley (Marcella), and his nieces and nephew. He was a proud grandfather to four precious grandchildren that he loved immensely. He will be dearly missed by his family, his neighbors, and his friends in Mobile, Virginia, and Alaska. One of his favorite "Travis-isms" was "Variety is the spice of life", and he lived a full life by that motto. He was most proud of his experience as a home builder and small business owner. He was both resourceful and creative and could build or fix just about anything. His work ethic was unmatched and he enjoyed sharing his knowledge of carpentry with others. He also worked in the oil fields in Alaska at various times, spending much of that time in Prudhoe Bay which is located inside the Arctic Circle. During his rare time off, he enjoyed spending time with his family, watching football, fishing, sci-fi, and gardening.

No one would describe Travis as traditional; therefore, in keeping with his memory there are no traditional services planned. His family appreciates your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time

“ My heart breaks💔for the Woolley Family. I've known Mr. Travis since I was 10 years old when we first moved to Alabama from California. I grew up playing with Amanda & Bonnie and then my younger brothers would end up becoming best friends with their baby brother, Travis. The Woolleys were more than neighbors....they were family with Mr. Travis as their Patriarch. He was the hardest working person I know who would do anything for his wife & kids. That is something that I have always admired about him. More than that, I respected him as one of the few great male role models that I have had in my life. He will be missed. Our thoughts & prayers are with Monica, Amanda, Bonnie & Lil' Travis during this time of grief as well as with those who loved and knew him well. May he rest in peace.
